Dear Bob Sullivan,

Yes, anyone can have accesss to the records I got under FOIA.

However, I never had any interest in Ferrie and his strange religion.

Therefore, in going over any FBI records relating to him I did not make copies for separate filing if there were any such.

Aside from Jim Garrison, I don't know who may have copies of the records you are interested in.

To explain the third sentence, I keep the records I get exactly as they come, for the future, but I've made separate, duplicate copies of some for subject filing.

I am not familiar with Brad Steiger, his writing or what he said about Ferrie and Oswald attending black-magic rituals, satanism.

On the basis of what I know I don't believe it.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
